Electric Adjustable Beds - Comfort or necessity - The solution is on hand

Electric Adjustable Beds are essential for both health-related needs and enhanced comfort. For those with health conditions that require adjusted sleeping positions, electric beds provide the flexibility to find the most suitable angles for support. Additionally, they offer a level of convenience that promotes relaxation and rest, making them a valuable choice for individuals seeking ultimate comfort during sleep.

Whether addressing health concerns or simply aiming for a more comfortable night's rest, electric beds offer personalized solutions that cater to individual needs.

On display in our Barnard Castle store

Parker Knoll Burghley Collection boasts classic silhouettes and exquisite detailing, making it one of our most elegant suites. The formal high back employs elasticated webbing for a wonderful posture and support, whilst the seats are filled with our finest fibre technology giving you ultimate comfort whilst helping to maintain the seats shape.

Penny is a great sofa designed with cosy spaces in mind. The seat cushions are slightly shallower than our bigger furniture. An excellent refreshed "Cosy 2" fabric collection mixes soft touch plains with bold contemporary accents that work perfectly together.
